Questions, Concerns, Conversation, Spiritual Direction

You are welcome at any time to stop by the Campus Ministry Office (CM103), or to call, email, or text (see front page for contact info). Check out the display case beside Brewed Awakening to see pictures of our chapel and campus ministry activities over the past years.

Thank You, Schola!

Thank you, Schola, for the beautiful music you have brought to us for the past many semesters during our liturgies. Special thanks go to their director, Valerie Hall, who had the vision and desire to bring this group into existence and the giftedness to share her love of music with others.

Though Schola will no longer meet weekly at Campion and provide music ministry, they will continue to gather and take up a new form. If you love this music and would like to join them, let us know.

Please join us for cake after mass and help us say “good-bye” and “thank you.”

Gingerbread Cookie Decorating

Have some fun and celebrate the end of classes by stopping by to decorate gingerbread cookies. We'll do the baking and supply you with all sorts of festive icings and sprinkles with which to decorate — all you have to do is stop by and let your creativity express itself! Everyone's invited to stop by the Campion Student Commons area on:

Tuesday, December 6th, Campion Student Commons from 9:30 am to 2:30 pm (or while supplies last).

Invite your friends. Stay for 5 minutes or 5 hours — your choice!

Christmas Eve Mass

Will you be here for Christmas Eve Mass (December 24th) at 7:00 p.m. If so, please consider being a lector or Eucharistic minister. There is a sign-up sheet on the table at the back of the chapel, or email Stephanie.

Winter 2017

Will you be here next semester? Please let us know if you would like to be added to the ministry list as a reader or a server for weekdays or Sundays. As well, let us know if you are unable to continue as a liturgical minister. We require: Lectors; Communion Ministers; Servers. We would like to have a list ready for the beginning of the semester. It's easy, fun, and so helpful! For those new to liturgical ministry, we're happy to train you! See sign-up sheet at the back of the chapel or contact Stephanie.

Jesuit Connection:

The Canadian Canoe Pilgrimage 2017 is a project of the Jesuits in English Canada, that wishes to promote reconciliation between the First Nations, French, and English peoples of Canada.

The paddlers will consist of Jesuits from both the French and English Provinces as well as First Nations Peoples and Jesuit collaborators (that's lay people and non-Jesuits who have a connection with them).

By including representatives of French and English Canada and the First Nations, this pilgrimage will echo the original route made by St. Jean de Brébeuf and other Jesuits alongside the First Nations and Voyageurs in Canada's formative years.

It will take place during the summer of 2017. If this sounds like an exciting opportunity for you, go to their website: <http://canoepilgrimage.com/> and sign up for updates and more information about this exciting initiative.

Principles of Catholic Education (CATH 290 AH)

Are you a teacher or a student who would like to teach in a Catholic school system? Catholic Studies courses count as an area of special training on the teacher application form for Regina Catholic Schools. This course will explore the principles of Catholic education in light of Church teaching and a Catholic understanding of the whole human person. It will investigate Catholic pedagogy and other aspects of the educational experience from both theoretical and practical points of view. For this or for other Catholic Studies courses, contact Sami Helewa, SJ (see front of bulletin for contact information).

SOURCE

Join other young people (high school students and young adults) one Sunday a month for adoration, reconciliation, talks, supper, and friends. SOURCE meets one Sunday a month at various parishes from 6 to 9 p.m. Next weekend, December 11th, you are invited to Christ the King Parish, 3239 Garnet St.
