The Campion Chapel is available for personal prayer / reflection whenever the building is open.

Epiphany

Today we celebrate the Epiphany, which means the manifestation of God. Christ is revealed in many ways: as Lord, as King, as the one in whom God is present and acts. All of these manifestations are “lights” that shine on Christ, revealing a deeper understanding of who he is.

May this semester bring you the recognition of Christ in each other and in this community. Let’s begin by sharing some sweet treats after mass today.

Bulletin

This week, as you see, there is a printed bulletin. There are a great many things coming up in the semester, and we want to make sure that everyone has a chance to have a glimpse at some of them. Make sure each week to check the website for the most recent activities.

<http://campioncollege.ca/campus-life/campus-ministry/sunday-bulletin>

It is through your input and engagement that we can continue to build a strong Catholic community on campus.

Liturgical Ministries

Once again we call on people who are willing to commit to Sunday ministries. We are in need of lectors and servers. Many of you generally attend mass here at Campion on Sunday evenings. Please consider using the gifts you received at your Baptism and Confirmation to help make our liturgies meaningful and well run. Be bold; be brave; be part of the liturgical ministry team! Contact Stephanie.

Campion Social

Join us at 3 p.m. in the Campion Student Commons this Wednesday, January 11th. The social will be sponsored by the Campion College Students’ Union. Come and meet them, have some food and beverage, and make a new friend!

World Religion Day

Pope Francis has said that Inter-religious dialogue must be grounded in a “full and forthright presentation” of different faiths’ respective convictions.”

Each year the Regina Multi Faith Forum (of which we are a member) jointly celebrates World Religion Day, a day which recognizes that all religions have common spiritual goals. The celebration will be held next Sunday, January 15th, 2 p.m.

at the Beth Jacob Synagogue, 4715 McTavish St.

You are invited to join us as several faith groups reflect on the theme of “Hospitality.” If you would like to attend but do not have a way to get there, please contact Stephanie.

Catholic Students’ Week (CSW) — Theme: The World is Our Neighbour

Each year universities and colleges across Canada dedicate a week to profile and celebrate the many expressions of being Catholic on our campuses. This year CSW is January 29—February 5th. There will be a variety of activities and information throughout this week. Watch for the final lineup soon, and make a point to show your enthusiasm for your Catholic faith.

We are excited to announce the kickoff to the week at Campion as follows:

Mash, Munchies, and Mass (M³)

Students are invited to “Mash, Munchies, and Mass” at 4:30 p.m. on Sunday, January 29th to kick off Catholic Students’ Week. Archbishop Don Bolen will meet with students to talk and get to know you.

As our new archbishop gets to know the people of his diocese, let’s give a good showing by bringing items of conversation and questions that are important to you!

Registration is required so that we can order sufficient food and beverages. Please register with Deacon Joe or Stephanie prior to January 27th.

Project of Heart

Project of Heart teaches about the history of the residential school system in Canada. Using an artistic approach, the people and families who were and still are affected by this system will be commemorated. This program is part of the process of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. Come and be a part of this experience! For more information about Project of Heart, go to www.projectofheart.ca.

Schedule: Saturdays, January 14, 28, February 11, 25 — 9 to noon.

Register now as space is limited. There will be a Commemoration Ceremony date to be determined as per participants’ schedules.

For more information and/or to register, please contact Jenna Tickell at JennaTickell@hotmail.ca.

From Conflict to Community — Catholic-Lutheran Bible Study

2017 is the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. It is also the 100th anniversary of Campion. Prompted by Pope Francis’ leadership and example, the chaplaincies of Campion and Luther are beginning a joint bible study on the Sunday readings from the Gospel of Matthew. Exploring these readings will help you get more out of the Sunday homily. The only material you will need is a copy of the Gospel of Matthew. If you do not have one and would like to participate, please speak to Stephanie.

We begin during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity
Thursdays beginning January 19th to March 30th from 4 to 5 p.m.

Together let’s jointly rediscover the power and message of the Gospel! Contact Stephanie or Pastor Sean for details.
