

WOMEN AT THE HEART OF CHANGE

DOROTHY STANG, SNDEN

Witness to Courage

As a teenager, Sr. Dorothy joined the convent of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur in Cincinnati, Ohio. The congregation's mission affirms a commitment to "take our stand with poor people especially women and children, in the most abandoned places." Sr. Dorothy went to Para in northeastern Brazil, the country's most impoverished region, encompassing huge tracts of rainforest and innumerable poor.

Brazil has one of the worst land distribution rates in the world. Just 1.6 per cent of landowners own nearly half of the land on which crops can be grown. Sr. Dorothy worked with an organization that defends the rights of the landless people in Brazil.

For more than 30 years she stood with the poor of the Amazon. She dedicated her life to protecting landless peasants and the rainforest from disastrous and illegal exploitation by large-scale ranchers and logging companies. She assisted the landless to gain title for small land settlements. This work put Sr. Dorothy in danger from those who wanted to continue to exploit the rainforest and the poor. More than 500 people were killed in land disputes between 1985 and 2004. Sr. Dorothy knew many of them. She herself received death threats from loggers and large landowners. Yet, she refused to be intimidated, saying:

I don't want to flee, nor do I want to abandon the battle of these farmers . . . They have a sacrosanct right to aspire to a better life on land where they can live and work with dignity while respecting the environment.

Local people called her "Dora" or "the Angel of the Amazon." Her opponents called her a terrorist. They falsely accused her of supplying guns to the peasants. On February 14, 2005, Sr. Dorothy was brutally assassinated by two men hired by ranchers. She carried only her Bible, and standing before her assassins she read aloud: "Blessed are the poor in spirit for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." The work to defend the rights of landless people in Brazil continues today.

Suggestions for Lenten Practices:

P - Dedicate 10 minutes each day to listening to God
r - Pray for students and professors at this semester's end a - Pray for those who are convocating
y - Spend time in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel

F In his Lenten Message, Pope Francis said: "I distrust a charity that costs nothing and does not hurt." So he suggests that even more than candy or alcohol, we fast from indifference towards others. "We need to hear once more the voice of the prophets who cry out and trouble our conscience."

A Today is Solidarity Sunday, the day on which we take up l the Share Lent collection for the work of Development & i Peace-Caritas Canada. For anyone who is able, please v donate generously. Envelopes are provided at the back s of the chapel.

J Learn the difference between justice and charity. This u week we look at Charity: direct response to an immediate s need. Sending food to people in the wake of natural disaster, t visiting someone who is ill, helping a neighbour i whose home has been destroyed by fire are all works of c mercy Christians are called to do.

CHAPEL CONFIGURATION FOR LENT:

By the solemn 40 days of Lent the Church unites herself each year to the mystery of Jesus in the desert (CCC 540). When we gather on Sunday, we are aware that there are two Tables:

THE TABLE OF THE WORD	THE TABLE OF THE EUCHARIST
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nourishes us spiritually by God's Word 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nourishes us spiritually by the Eucharist
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Helps us grow in wisdom 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Helps us grow in holiness
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Announces the divine covenant 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Renews the everlasting covenant
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Brings to mind the history of salvation 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Embodies the history of salvation in the sacramental signs of the liturgy

The configuration of the chapel during this Lent lends itself to a purposeful posture of our community as we sit to listen to God's word, and then gather around the altar to participate in the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

- Please find empty chairs in which to sit and use the benches only when the seats have all been occupied.
- Follow the gift bearers and gather around the altar for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
- Please remain standing throughout the Eucharistic Prayer (paragraph 43 of the GIRM) and make a profound bow when the priest genuflects
- After communion, please return to your seats
- For the sake of uniformity of posture, indicating unity of the community, please remain standing until everyone has received communion

Call for volunteers! Will you be here for masses for the next Sunday and Holy Day liturgies? Please sign up on the sheet outside the chapel for liturgical ministries!

Development and Peace
CARITAS CANADA

WOMEN AT THE HEART OF CHANGE

This Lent, Development and Peace - Caritas Canada has chosen to put women at the forefront to highlight their role and their very special importance in every aspect of development, whether it be social, environmental, or economic.

Each week during Lent we will feature women in the bulletin who are outstanding witnesses to their beliefs and to the dignity of all creation using Scarborough Missions' 2014 posters of and information about them. The posters themselves can be found in the Campus Ministry display case on the main floor outside of Brewed Awakening.

ACTION:

Think of a woman who has been a force for positive change in the world or in your life. Write her name on the peer support door (CM107), where it will remain for the duration of Lent.
