CHAPEL CONFIGURATION FOR LENT:

By the solemn 40 days of Lent the Church unites herself each year to the mystery of Jesus in the desert (CCC 540). When we gather on Sunday, we are aware that there are two Tables:

THE TABLE OF THE WORD	THE TABLE OF THE EUCHARIST
• Nourishes us spiritually by God's Word	• Nourishes us spiritually by the Eucharist
• Helps us grow in wisdom	• Helps us grow in holiness
• Announces the divine covenant	• Renews the everlasting covenant
• Brings to mind the history of salvation	• Embodies the history of salvation in the sacramental signs of the liturgy

The configuration of the chapel during this Lent lends itself to a purposeful posture of our community as we sit to listen to God's word, and then gather around the altar to participate in the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

- Please find empty chairs in which to sit and use the benches only when the seats have all been occupied.
- Follow the gift bearers and gather around the altar for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.
- Please remain standing throughout the Eucharistic Prayer (paragraph 43 of the GIRM) and make a profound bow when the priest genuflects
- For the sake of uniformity of posture, indicating unity of the community, please remain standing throughout the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

PRAISE AND PRAYER

CFCY Campus invites you to join with others

"FINDING GOD IN ALL THINGS"

CAMPUS MINISTRY PEER SUPPORT 2017-2018

Applications for peer support students for the next academic year are now being accepted. Students assist the campus ministry team with retreats, helping at liturgies, staffing the peer support office, and generally being a student who is available to others.

If you would like more information, please speak to one of the current year's students (see front cover) or Stephanie.

Applications are being accepted between now and the end of classes (April 12th). You will find the application at: championcollege.ca/campus-life/campus-ministry/peer-support-students.

You do not have to be a Champion student to apply, but you must be available from September 2017 to April 2018. Have a look at the above website for more information.

Icon of the Holy Family

At the back of the chapel you will see this beautiful etching of the Holy Family by the 18th-century artist Giovanni Balestra.

Knights of Columbus councils across North America have been taking turns having the icon at their respective parishes and council meetings. The KC Council at Champion takes pleasure in hosting the icon in our chapel today. Please feel free to pause in front of the icon for prayer for as long as it remains in the chapel.

WOMEN AT THE HEART OF CHANGE

MALALA YOUSAFZAI
Witnesses to Equality

In 2008 Taliban militants began a ruthless campaign to take over the Swat Valley of northwestern Pakistan. They shot and beheaded policemen and hung their lifeless bodies in public squares. They enforced strict rules on the population, stopping women from shopping, and banning television, music, and the education of girls. By the end of the year the Taliban had blown up nearly a hundred schools.

Wanting to show how educational restrictions were affecting girl students, the BBC Urdu language service searched for a schoolgirl who would blog anonymously for their website. The girl chosen for this was Malala Yousafzai. Only 11 years old, Malala was already an outspoken proponent of education.

For two months in early 2009, Malala's blog entries appeared on the BBC and were reprinted in local newspapers. She wrote about the fighting and disruption of normal activity, about studying for exams she wasn't sure she would be able to write, and about the closing down and reopening of schools. She criticized the Pakistani army for not doing enough to protect schools from being destroyed. That summer, as the Pakistani military battled the Taliban in the Swat Valley, Malala appeared in a documentary film and fearlessly gave interviews in print and on television, once telling CNN, "I have the right of education. I have the right to play. I have the right to sing. I have the right to talk."

On October 9, 2012, a masked Taliban gunman boarded a bus and shouted, "Which one of you is Malala? Speak up, otherwise I will shoot you all." Malala was shot at close range. The bullet went through her head and neck, and lodged in her shoulder. She was kept alive and treated by doctors in Pakistan, Germany, and finally Great Britain, where early in 2013 she had surgery to reconstruct her skull and restore her hearing.

The assassination attempt received worldwide attention and produced a wave of sympathy and anger. Immediate protests were held in several Pakistani cities and more than 2 million people signed a petition that led to the ratification of the first Right to Education Bill in Pakistan.

Campus Ministry Action for Lent:

Think of a woman who has been a force for positive change in the world or in your life. Write her name on the peer support door (CM107), where it will remain for the duration of Lent.

All Campion College Campus Ministry areas are Positive Spaces. We are committed to being a place that is welcoming and inclusive for people of all genders and sexualities.

Fourth Sunday of Lent
March 26, 2017

Liturgies: Sundays at 6:30 p.m.
Weekdays at 12:30 p.m.

Suggestions for Lenten Practices:

P ♦ Pray a passage of scripture using lectio divina.
r ♦ Attend Mass on a weekday when possible.
a ♦ Pray the rosary; there are some in the Blessed y Sacrament chapel for your use
e

F Haven't done too well in your fasting commitment so a far this Lent? It's not too late. In these last three
