DO YOU KNOW that we begin a new liturgical year next week with the beginning of Advent? Readings are taken from Year A of a three-year cycle of readings. From now until next Advent the focus is on the Gospel of Matthew.” Next week’s readings:

Isaiah 2:1-5 Romans 13:11-14 Matthew 24:37-44

Movie — Ignacio de Loyola

'If you could hear the voice of God, would you want to keep it secret?' This movie is a historical drama based on the memoirs of St. Ignatius of Loyola, founder of the Jesuits. It is the story of a soldier, a man of vice and violence who, in his attempt to turn to the light, was forced to wrestle with his inner demons to the very brink of death. The film chronicles his valiant but futile defense at the Battle of Pamplona, his struggles with depression and near-suicide, his trial before the Inquisition, and his ultimate vindication.

It will be shown in the Riffel Auditorium at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, November 24th.

Cost $8 — A limited number of tickets are available from Stephanie. Any students wishing to attend can be sponsored through Campus Ministry while supplies last. Please speak to Stephanie for your free ticket.

At the Heart of the Action with D & P for Ecological Justice

At the COP21, Canada committed to investing $2.65 billion by 2020 to support countries of the Global South that are severely affected by climate change. While there are many ways to respond to climate change, we believe that agriculture must be at the heart of proposed solutions. Let's support an agricultural model that enables these stewards of the earth to live in dignity and feed their communities in a way that respects our common home, the Earth.

Sign the Development and Peace Action Card today! Ask the Prime Minister to take into account the vital role of small family farmers in feeding and cooling the planet and to ensure that their voices are heard: devp.org/act.

Gingerbread Cookie Decorating

Have some fun and celebrate the end of classes by stopping by to decorate gingerbread cookies. We'll do the baking and supply you with all sorts of festive and yummy treats with which to decorate — all you have to do is stop by and let your creativity express itself! Everyone's invited to stop by the Campion Student Commons area on:

Tuesday, December 6th, Campion Student Commons from 9:30 am to 2 pm (or while supplies last).

Jesuit Connection:

Campion College has the distinct honour of being the only undergraduate Jesuit educational institution in Canada. On December 1st, the feast of St. Edmund Campion, we will begin to celebrate our 100th year. Join us at day at any one (or all) of the kickoff events that will occur that day:

10:00 a.m. — Official opening of the new entryway and elevator

12:30 p.m. — Patron's Day mass

3:00 p.m. — kickoff social

5:30 p.m. — Gala Dinner with bestselling author Chris Lowney
(tickets available on Campion's website.)

The events are open to the university and Regina community.

We continue our series on looking at characteristics of a Jesuit education, this week highlighting:

Leadership in service "Men and Women for Others". Leaders in service are ones who display a genuine concern for society and the world in which we live, especially the marginalized, vulnerable and forgotten. They take on leadership roles not for personal gain, but to help advance their community and improve conditions for all.

If you would like a booklet which incorporates Jesuit values as a student leader, please speak to Stephanie.

Wonder what it's like to be a Jesuit?

Last Chance for the Jesuit Come and See Weekend

Friday, November 25th to Sunday, November 27th

Jesuit Novitiate/Pedro Arrupe House, 5611, Avenue Gatineau, Montreal

Are you a young (or young-at-heart) man considering a vocation to ministry in the Church, particularly the Jesuit way of life? This weekend is an opportunity to:

- meet and interact with Jesuits
- learn who we are and what we do
- spend time in prayer, reflecting on the call to brotherhood or priesthood
- see, experience, and be part of the novitiate way of life

Other than travel, there are no costs for the weekend, and some financial assistance is available for those whose budgets are limited.

Contact Fr. William Mbugua SJ, Assistant for Vocations, 647-637-3298 or vocation@jesuits.ca if you are interested. You may also speak to Stephanie for more information.

Jesuit Trivia

"Home Boyz", an organization founded by a Californian Jesuit, Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J., trains gang kids to work in companies as computer programmers. Fr. Boyle will speak at the U of R this March at the Forward Together Lecture.
