TODAY we begin a new liturgical year. Readings are taken from Year A of a three-year cycle of readings. From now until next Advent the focus is on the Gospel of Matthew." You will get more out of the scripture and homily if you prepare for next Sunday by praying with the readings for December 4th:

Isaiah 11:1-10

Romans 15:4-9

Matthew 3:1-12

Be at the heart of the action!

Development and Peace thanks you for your ongoing commitment and for rallying to the cause of the world's most vulnerable people. When we act together, change is possible! Join a dynamic cross-Canada movement that is taking action for global peace and justice. Become a member of Development and Peace today! Without you, there would be no action, no change, no justice. For more information, go to devp.org/membership. If you did not sign the action card last week, please pick one up on the table outside the chapel and leave it there for mailing. Thank you.

Gingerbread Cookie Decorating

Have some fun and celebrate the end of classes by stopping by to decorate gingerbread cookies. We'll do the baking and supply you with all sorts of festive and yummy treats with which to decorate — all you have to do is stop by and let your creativity express itself! Everyone's invited to stop by the Campton Student Commons area on:

Tuesday, December 6th, Campton Student Commons from 9:30 am to 2 pm (or while supplies last).

Principles of Catholic Education (CATH 290 AH)

Are you a teacher or a student who would like to teach in a Catholic school system? Catholic Studies courses count as an area of special training on the teacher application form for Regina Catholic Schools. This course (will explore the principles of Catholic education in light of Church teaching and a Catholic understanding of the whole human person. It will investigate Catholic pedagogy and other aspects of the educational experience from both theoretical and practical points of view. For this or for other Catholic Studies courses, contact Sami Helewa, SJ (see front of bulletin for contact information).

Christmas Eve Mass

Will you be here for Christmas Eve Mass (December 24th) at 7:00 p.m. If so, please consider being a lector or Eucharistic minister. There is a sign-up sheet on the table at the back of the chapel, or email Stephanie.

Winter 2017

Will you be here next semester? Please let us know if you would like to be added to the ministry list as a reader or a server for weekdays or Sundays. As well, let us know if you are unable to continue as a liturgical minister. We require: Lectors; Communion Ministers; Servers. We would like to have a list ready for the beginning of the semester. It's easy, fun, and so helpful! For those new to liturgical ministry, we're happy to train you! See sign-up sheet at the back of the chapel or contact Stephanie.

Jesuit Connection:

Campion College has the distinct honour of being the only undergraduate Jesuit educational institution in Canada.

On December 1st, the feast of St. Edmund Campion, we will begin to celebrate our 100th year. Please join us for any or all of the following events:

10:00 a.m. Blessing and opening of new entryway and elevator.

12:30 p.m. Special Mass for Feast of St. Edmund Campion, S.J.
Homilist: Fr. Frank Obrigewitsch, S.J.

3—5:00 p.m. Social in Student Commons.

All members of the Campion community, including alumni, are warmly invited.

5:30 pm Gala evening with bestselling author Chris Cowney, Hotel Saskatchewan. To register and reserve a place, go to: <http://campioncollege.ca/events/item?id=181>.

Thank you for your support in celebrating a century of forming people for others in the Jesuit tradition.

OR

For something entirely different, but Jesuit related, check out the following:

THE CANADIAN CANOE PILGRIMAGE 2017 is a project of the Jesuits in English Canada, that wishes to promote reconciliation between the First Nations, French, and English peoples of Canada.

The paddlers will consist of Jesuits from both the French and English Provinces as well as First Nations Peoples and Jesuit collaborators (that's lay people and non-Jesuits who have a connection with them).

By including representatives of French and English Canada and the First Nations, this pilgrimage will echo the original route made by St. Jean de Brébeuf and other Jesuits alongside the First Nations and Voyageurs in Canada's formative years.

It will take place during the summer of 2017. If this sounds like an exciting opportunity for you, go to their website: <http://canoePilgrimage.com/> and sign up for updates and more information about this exciting initiative.
