Catholic Students' Week

Today is the official end to Catholic Students' Week. Thanks to everyone who participated in the many events that went on last week. Always remember that you have a home here at Campion. If you want to get involved in any way, speak to anyone on the Campus Ministry team.

Your Campion College Students Union (CCSU)

Games Night

Thursday, February 9, 2017, 6:30 p.m.

Bring your own game or play ours! Everyone is welcome to attend! Free snacks and beverages

The CCSU also offers the opportunity for weekly prizes:

1. Hello Tuesdays!!

The CCSU wants to meet you. Stop by CM 110 to say hello in any language to receive an exclusive CCSU pin!

2. Academia Fridays

Every Friday throughout the semester the CCSU team will be posting a topic or theme on their Facebook page or door (CM 110). Students have the option of submitting:

- an essay (between 500-1000 words max)
- a photo that captures the theme of the week (and must include a few lines explaining the caption)
- a short film on the given topic.

Prizes such as exclusive CCSU merchandise will be distributed. BE HEARD! All submissions must be handed in by the following Monday by emailing ccsuregina@gmail.com.

Countdown to Lent

Ash Wednesday is approaching, believe it or not! Lent begins on March 1st with the 12:30 Ash Wednesday mass and distribution of ashes. Did you know that the ashes that are used to mark the beginning of Lent come from the branches that were blessed and distributed last Palm Sunday? If you have last year's palms that you would like to bring in, they will again be burned for this year's ashes. Just leave them on the table at the back of the chapel. Thank you.

From Conflict to Communion

Get more out of the Sunday gospel reading by joining the Catholic-Lutheran joint bible study on the Gospel of Matthew. We gather by the artwork floor at the entrance to Campion to pray with, reflect upon, and share what next Sunday's gospel has to say to our contemporary community.

Thursdays, 4-5 p.m. — Everyone is welcome.

CareNotes

CareNotes booklets offer words of comfort, strength and healing for those who are struggling with different things, or which have words of wisdom or information on different topics. Our supply of CareNotes have now been replenished, and you can find a wide variety of them outside the chapel. Please help yourself.

Ask the Imam

Join with other students, faculty, staff, and community members to engage in open dialogue with a spiritual leader and build an understanding of multi-faith fluency. Participants are welcome to ask any question with no question being too simple or too complex. Presented by the Luther Multi-faith Peer Chaplaincy,

Monday, February 6th, 1:30 p.m. in the Luther Lounge
(main floor by the chaplain's office)

Message of Solidarity from the President of Campion College which was sent to the Muslim Students' Association:

I just wanted to thank you for participating in the interfaith service of solidarity at Campion on Wednesday. It was a very moving experience. At such a tragic time in our country, it was consoling and encouraging to see so many people of diverse backgrounds come together to promote peace.

People came together to express their sorrow, their grief at such an unnecessary loss of life, their anger at the injustice of this situation - and their hope that we need to do better as a nation to ensure that all people, all faiths and all cultures are affirmed, respected and celebrated. Our diversity is our strength.

On behalf of Campion, I wish to convey to you and the Muslim Students Association our heartfelt condolences for our Muslim brothers and sisters. Know that you always have a home at Campion and that we will always act in solidarity with our Muslim friends to promote greater understanding.

We are committed to building bridges of reconciliation on campus and we have really appreciated your openness and generosity in allowing us to walk with you on this journey of discovery, encounter and dialogue.

Fr. John Meehan, SJ
President, Campion College
