

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 12, 2017

"I have come not to abolish but to fulfill the law."

WELCOME TO THE CAMPION CHAPEL

Campus Ministry at Campion

Using the comprehensive campus ministry model, we are here to serve the entire Campion and Catholic community on the U of R campus.

Let us know how we can serve!

Next Week, February 19th

7th Sunday Ordinary Time

Fr. Basil Malowany

Fr. Basil

Readings will be according to the Catholic Byzantine calendar, so they will differ from those in the Living With Christ booklet.

Please remain standing throughout the Eucharistic Prayer, as allowed for in paragraph 43 of the GIRM.

- at the Consecration, people make a profound bow when the priest genuflects
- Use the inside aisles for coming to communion; return via the outside aisles.
- For the sake of uniformity of posture, indicating unity of the community, please remain standing until everyone has received communion

Liturgies During Reading Week

Sunday masses do continue at Campion until the last week of exams in April, including both weekends surrounding the winter break week.

Weekday masses, however, will not be held February 21st to 24th!

If you are a liturgical minister, please check the schedule to verify you are able to serve on your scheduled Sundays. Thank you.

Countdown to Lent

Lent begins on March 1st with the 12:30 p.m. Ash Wednesday mass and distribution of ashes. Before we get there, though, we should start asking ourselves some questions and we should start with some preparations. "What does God want of me this year?" This question may require that I slow down a bit and listen to my inner spirit. Start thinking now about how you will prepare.

Do you know that the ashes that are used to mark the beginning of Lent come from the branches that were blessed and distributed last Palm Sunday? If you have last year's palms that you would like to bring in, they will again be burned for this year's ashes. Just leave them in the container near the back of the chapel. Thank you.

Open for Justice

Canadian companies need to be held accountable – and you can help! Canadian mining companies have caused environmental damage and human rights abuses while conducting their business in other countries. Do you think they should be held accountable? Join a group of like-minded students to learn about this issue and advocate for justice. Contact Sarah at sarah.hanna@uregina.ca to find out more and get involved.

CareNotes

CareNotes booklets offer words of comfort, strength and healing for those who are struggling with different things, or which have words of wisdom or information on different topics. Our supply of CareNotes have now been replenished, and you can find a wide variety of them outside the chapel. Please help yourself.

Rosaries

There are rosaries in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for you to pray with. If you would like one for your personal use outside the chapel, please speak to Stephanie. The Campion Council of the Knights of Columbus have generously donated a few.

From Conflict to Communion

Get more out of the Sunday gospel reading by joining the Catholic-Lutheran joint bible study on the Gospel of Matthew. We gather by the artwork floor at the entrance to Campion to pray with, reflect upon, and share what next Sunday's gospel has to say to our contemporary community.

Thursdays, 4-5 p.m. — Everyone is welcome.

Your Campion College Students Union (CCSU)

The CCSU offers the opportunity for weekly prizes:

1. Hello Tuesdays!!
The CCSU wants to meet you. Stop by CM110 to say hello in any language to receive an exclusive CCSU pin!
2. Academia Fridays
Every Friday throughout the semester the CCSU team will be posting a topic or theme on their Facebook page or door (CM110). Students have the option of submitting:
 - an essay (between 500-1000 words max)
 - a photo that captures the theme of the week (must include a few lines explaining the caption)
 - a short film on the given topic.

Prizes such as exclusive CCSU merchandise will be distributed. BE HEARD!
All submissions must be handed in by the following Monday by emailing ccsuregina@gmail.com.

One Book, One Province

Want something besides schoolwork to read? For the month of March, consider reading The Education of Augie Merasty: A Residential School Memoir by Joseph Auguste Merasty and David Carpenter. Libraries throughout the province will be participating in this project by hosting special events.

Campion College Library invites you to join us in the library for a discussion of this book on Friday, March 3rd at 3:00 p.m. Please contact Jennifer (jennifer.m.hall@uregina.ca) for more information or to confirm your attendance. Copies of the book can be found at Campion, Archer, and First Nations University libraries, as well as the U of R Bookstore.

The first five students to RSVP for this event will receive a complimentary copy of the book.

All Campion College Campus Ministry areas are Positive Spaces. We are committed to being a place that is welcoming and inclusive for people of all genders and sexualities.
