DO YOU KNOW that if you read the readings before you come to mass, you can get so much more out of the homily? Prepare for next week by reading the following: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2,7,9-14
2 Thessalonians 2:16—3:5
Luke 20:27-38

All Saints and All Souls

On Tuesday, November 1st, we celebrate All Saints, a day in which we recognize all the saints in a single celebration — those we know well, and those we may not know at all.

Wednesday, November 2nd, the commemoration of All Souls, is a day to remember those who have died.

During the month of November, we take the opportunity to pray for the deceased. Throughout the month you are invited to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the memorial book near the entrance to the chapel. We will pray for these people at each mass during November.

Campion Social

On Wednesday, November 2nd, at 3 p.m. come out to our monthly social in the Student Commons. Free food, good company, and informative guests. This week we are privileged to have four Syrian refugee families join us to talk about their lives and experiences. COME. LEARN. ENJOY.

Bible Study

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible — Sundays at 4:30 p.m.

For newcomers to the Bible Study, please come to the auditorium at 3:45 on Sunday. We will re-play the video lesson from the previous week.

(This Sunday is an exception, since Stephanie is away.)

This 8-week bible study is a video series, shown in the auditorium, followed by discussion in the Student Commons. Explore the story of salvation history from Creation and the Fall through the coming of Christ and the beginnings of the Church.

Prayer and Praise

Join with other students in our chapel on Thursday, November 10th at 4 p.m. CFC Campus, through Campus Ministry, will lead an uplifting time of music, praise, prayer, Catholic teaching, followed, of course, by food! Plan to spend your late afternoon/early evening with us. Then you may want to join the . . . (see next announcement)

CCSU Games Night

Bring your own games or play ours! Everyone is welcome, snacks and beverages provided! Thursday, November 10th, 6:30 p.m. in the Campion Student Commons. Sponsored by Campion College Students' Union.

October as Reverence for Life Month

This week is the final of four reflections from the Archdiocese of Regina Reverence for Life Commission. For access to all Reflections please go to <http://archregina.sk.ca/reverence-life>.

Jesuit Connection:

Campion College has the distinct honour of being the only undergraduate Jesuit educational institution in Canada.

On December 1st, the feast of St. Edmund Campion, we will begin to celebrate our 100th year.

Jesuit institutions are recognized internationally for their high academic standards. The Jesuit philosophy of education centers on providing an atmosphere of open inquiry that unites rigorous scholarship and academic excellence with ethical values and service to others. This week we look at the first of four key characteristics of a Jesuit education.

Striving for more (Magis) This Ignatian characteristic encourages students to go beyond excellence to always choose the greater good, and strive to develop each element to the fullest. It is not simply about being the best in their class, but rather reflected in the individual's desire for constant improvement, the need to always go that extra step, striving for growth and open to change.

If you would like a booklet which incorporates Jesuit values as a

Alpha for Youth: Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that freely explore the basics of the Christian faith. Each session looks at a different question, and is designed to create conversation. There's no pressure, no follow-up and no charge; it's just an open, informal, and honest space to explore and discuss life's big questions together.

Join us every Friday from October 21st to December 30th at Resurrection Parish (3155 Windsor Park Road) at 6 p.m. This is for young adults (18 and up) and includes a free supper.

"Ask the . . ." presented by the Luther Multi-faith Peer Chaplaincy, is an opportunity for students, faculty/staff, and community members to engage in open dialogue with a spiritual leader and build an understanding of multi-faith fluency. Participants are welcome to ask any question with no question being too simple or too complex.

Questions, Concerns, Conversation, Spiritual Direction

You are welcome at any time to stop by the Campus Ministry Office (CM103), or to call, email, or text (see front page for contact info). Check out the display case beside Brewed Awakening to learn more about Campus Ministry. Let's get to know each other!
