

WEEKLY REFLECTION

By Mary Lee Brock

One of my abundant blessings in my life is the presence of mentors. My life is better because of spiritual mentors, career mentors, parenting mentors and others who have guided, supported, taught and challenged me throughout my life.

A source of wisdom, a mentor takes the long view and offers encouragement and challenge at key times in life. The first reading from Samuel tells of the Lord calling out to Samuel but Samuel does not understand who was calling to him. Each time the Lord calls out, Samuel runs to Eli to answer. Eli finally pieces everything together and as a mentor to Samuel he helps Samuel understand how he should answer by instructing Samuel to say, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." Eli's encouragement helped the young Samuel to be open to the word of God that guided Samuel throughout his life.

Another spiritual mentor, Paul, speaks to the Corinthians in the second reading. Paul says: "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? Hearing Paul challenge the Corinthians breathes new life into this phrase and invites me to explore what attitudes about my life I need to pray about.

John the Baptist is a model of a spiritual mentor into today's Gospel. Just as a mentor can help someone find a life-changing path, he declares to his disciples to "Behold the Lamb of God" when he sees Jesus.

Today I am inspired to look for opportunities to be a spiritual mentor to others. When can I invite someone to hear God's call? How might I challenge someone who might be making a choice that does not glorify God? And how can I be open to the mentors in my life who urge me to behold the Lamb of God?

WEEK OF CHRISTIAN UNITY: SERVICE OF PRAYER

The Regina Council of Churches invites you to join in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity on Sunday, January 21 at 3:00 pm at First Presbyterian Church, 2170 Albert Street. Check out www.weekofprayer.ca for details.

RELIC OF SAINT FRANCIS XAVIER

A relic of Saint Francis Xavier will be coming to Campion College. There is an all-night-vigil starting on Friday, January 19 at 7:30 pm for students and friends (18 to 35) of the College. The Chapel will be open all night for prayer; the vigil will conclude at 9:00 am on Saturday morning.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Catholics believe that Christ is truly and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist, and the Blessed Sacrament is thus given the same devotion that is accorded to Christ. Every Thursday from 11:20 am until 12:20 pm, the Eucharist will be exposed in a Monstrance for adoration. You are invited to spend a few moments in prayer during this time.

MADE FOR GREATNESS: A CATHOLIC MEN'S EVENT

Once a month, Catholic men are invited to a fellowship and prayer event. The evening begins with soup & sandwiches at 6:00 pm and follows with praise, adoration, & confession at 7:00 pm. The next event will be Friday, February 2 at Resurrection Parish. Contact Kevin at 306-537-7192 for a little more information or simply show up.

WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES: 2018

Today marks World Day of Migrants and Refugees. The theme - chosen by Pope Francis himself - is "Welcoming, protecting, promoting, and integrating migrants and refugees." As Christians, we must advocate and support concrete actions related to migration and refugees. Copies of the Pope's message can be found on the table outside the Chapel or online.

LECTORS, ACOLYTES, AND MUSICIANS

Campus Ministry is looking for individuals to help proclaim the readings at our Sunday liturgies. You are most welcome. Please reach out to Father Jeffrey S. Burwell, SJ if you can help out, even just once a month. He can be contacted at jeffrey.burwell@uregina.ca or 306-502-9428 anytime. This is an important ministry, and your service would be appreciated.
