

WEEKLY REFLECTION

By Mariana Miller

In the first reading from the book of Jonah, God called Jonah and sent him to Nineveh to announce repentance and faith in God or they would all be destroyed. Jonah did as God said and within a day, the whole city repented, “believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.”

According to the text, God changes his mind and does not destroy the city or its inhabitants. In the gospel reading Jesus himself is the message, God with us, and the messenger. He announces that the kingdom of God is at hand and he urges us to repent and believe in the good news that his is bringing.

It strikes me that these are only two examples among many throughout Scripture where God invites us to repent and change our ways. God invites to receive the Life that only God can give. This invitation seems to be always open, God is faithful; and at the same time it seems to be continually coming to us and inviting a response from us.

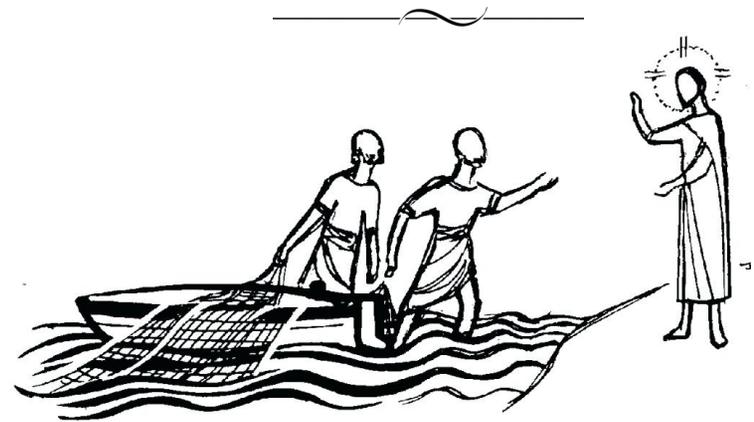

In the passage from the gospel according to Mark, we see how Jesus invites his first disciples. Very often when reading commentaries or hearing preaching about this passage we are invited to reflect upon and contemplate our own calling to follow Jesus and to announce the kingdom of God.

Today, I would like to invite us to reflect on God’s faithfulness to us in his unconditional love that keeps constantly, but gently inviting. The only requirement is: “repent, believe and embrace this good news of my unconditional love for you.”

CATHOLIC STUDENTS WEEK: JANUARY 28 – FEBRUARY 2

Campion College is celebrating Catholic Students Week, which is an international week of social-justice-study and faith-based-fellowship for all students on Catholic campuses. We begin on Sunday, January 28 with a presentation by Tashia Toupin from Development and Peace on Catholic Social Teaching. Please consider attending this important talk and discussion (at 5 pm on the 4th floor of Campion) before next Sunday's liturgy. Pizza will be served. For a list of all the CSW events on campus, check our website or look for posters around the building.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Catholics believe that Christ is truly and substantially present in the Holy Eucharist, and the Blessed Sacrament is thus given the same devotion that is accorded to Christ. Every Thursday from 11:20 am until 12:20 pm, the Eucharist will be exposed in a Monstrance for adoration. You are invited to spend a few moments in prayer during this time.

MADE FOR GREATNESS: A CATHOLIC MEN'S EVENT

Once a month, Catholic men are invited to a fellowship and prayer event. The evening begins with soup & sandwiches at 6:00 pm and follows with praise, adoration, & confession at 7:00 pm. The next event will be Friday, February 2 at Resurrection Parish. Contact Kevin at 306-537-7192 for more information or simply show up.

LENT IS COMING

This year, Ash Wednesday is February 14... It is on Valentine's Day. Plan on coming to Campion College to receive your Ashes at 12:30 pm and begin the Lenten season with a real commitment to the conversion of your heart and mind. Start thinking about how Lent will change you.

LECTORS, ACOLYTES, AND MUSICIANS

Campus Ministry is looking for just a few more individuals to help with the Sunday liturgies. You are most welcome. There is a list at the back of the Chapel that highlights the spots where you might help. These are important ministries, and your service is appreciated. Please speak with Fr. Jeffrey Burwell, SJ (tonight's celebrant) if you have questions.
