ANTISEMITISM & THE HOLOCAUST
TBA

Start Date: 2024-05-06  End Date: 2024-06-19

“Antisemitism,” strictly speaking, is a modern phenomenon: the word itself dating to the nineteenth century. Yet it is obvious that hostility towards Jews has existed for centuries. Is it possible, then, or fruitful, to distinguish between different historical stages of anti-Jewish animus? Examining the twentieth century as the stage on which such horrific tragedies as the Holocaust unfolded, let’s delve into a historical analysis of the development of antisemitism in Western civilization. Whatever our conclusions about a typology of Judeaeophobia and antisemitism, one thing is certain: the curtain has yet to fall on the sorry spectacle of xenophobia and demonizing “the other.”

Prerequisites: One HIST course or completion of 30 credit hours.

Note: Students may receive credit for one of HIST 390AU or RLST 322.

CRITICAL THINKING

TBA

Start Date: 2024-05-06  End Date: 2024-06-19

Critical thinking—also called logic—is the study of how to distinguish good reasoning from bad, correct thinking from incorrect. It’s a little like grammar: we use it all the time, usually without thinking about it. But like grammar, critical thinking involves universal rules that you may not be familiar with. Studying these rules will help you to use them more effectively, and so to become a better thinker.

In the first half of the course, we’ll study some of the basic concepts of critical thinking. We’ll pay particular attention to the concept of an argument, and to related notions such as classification and definition. We’ll also study techniques that you can use to assess the strength of an argument and to spot fallacies (errors in reasoning). The second part of the course will be devoted to somewhat more technical topics. We’ll spend several weeks studying classical deductive logic as developed by Aristotle. We’ll also take a look at modern propositional logic, at inductive logic, and at the connections between critical thinking and other important topics.
